Apply to the

Sonoma County
Junior Commission on Human Rights

“Now I look at our county with a new perspective, trying to become more aware of my surroundings.”

“I hope that we can all see beyond each others’ physical characteristics and respect and appreciate each other for who we are as individuals.”

“Every day we are making strides...Sonoma County is lucky enough to be one of the few counties that have commissions focusing on human rights.”

“With our effort and the efforts of our peers and our community, we will make Sonoma County a more beautiful, kind and efficient place.”
